WHERE MY CARAVAN HAS RESTED

Where my caravan has rested,
Flowers I leave you on the grass,
All the flowers of love and memory,
You will find them when you pass.

You will understand their message,
Stoop to kiss them where they lie;
But if other lips have loved you,
Shed no tear—and pass them by.

EDWARD TESCHEMACHER

NOTE. The Gipsies leave some grass or a few flowers at the Cross Roads to show the other gipsies following behind them the road they have taken—This is known as the "Patterain".
